SUBJECT: Proposed Amendments to SCC 30.31A.140

DATE: November 24, 2021

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this staff report is to outline and provide information regarding a non-project proposal to amend regulations related to residential uses within the Business Park (BP) zone. The proposed amendments seek the following objectives: a.) promote flexibility of uses within the BP zone; b.) reinstate residential development as an allowed use in the BP zone and update the related criteria for this use; and c.) promote the development of a diversity of housing types to provide missing middle housing.

BACKGROUND

In 2003, Ordinance 03-107 was passed to provide flexibility in the code for uses allowed in the BP zone. The ordinance permitted residential development on large BP zoned sites which could also allow for compatibility of residential development with commercial/industrial uses and surrounding land.

In 2017, a large privately owned BP site was annexed to the City of Lake Stevens at which point there were no longer any properties that met the criteria outlined in SCC 30.31A.140. Ordinance 16-013 removed residential development as an allowed use in the BP zone and was adopted on March 8, 2017, and effective on May 7, 2017. However, SCC 30.21.025 (intent of zones), which states that "The BP zone, under limited circumstances, may also provide for residential development where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for on-site mixed uses and for uses on adjacent properties," was not amended.

According to the recent Snohomish County Housing Affordability Regional Taskforce (HART) 2020 Report, Snohomish County is facing significant housing demand. The housing supply in Snohomish County is lagging behind population growth. Between 2016 and 2018, the number of new housing units was 61% less than the increase in the number of households in the county.

In 2021, a large site zoned BP was sold by the county and is now in private ownership. Re-instating the flexibility of uses within the BP zone as existed prior to 2017 in limited circumstances would further the County's goals in addressing the housing shortage.

PROPOSED CODE AMENDMENTS

The proposed code amendments would re-instate residential development as an allowed use in the Business Park (BP) zone under limited circumstances. To align with the intent of BP zoning which states that residential development may be allowed in limited circumstances on large lots, the proposed code would allow residential development on sites that are 25 acres or greater under single ownership or unified control (for multiple parcels). Additionally, to balance the need to maintain land suitable for industrial uses with the need to expand housing opportunities, the proposed code changes would only apply to properties currently zoned BP. These changes would therefore apply to only a few areas of the county, including the former Cathcart West property which is less suitable for industrial development being surrounded by mostly residential and public facilities (school) uses.

The following two tables provide an overview of the proposed changes to Snohomish County Code regarding the regulation of residential development within the BP zone.

TABLE 1: SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CODE CHANGES
Proposed Language	Finding
30.31A.140 BP zone performance standards for residential development. Residential development in the BP zone is subject to the following: (1) The site must be a minimum of 25 contiguous acres under single ownership or for multiple parcels under unified control.	To keep with the intent of the BP zone which allows that properties zoned BP can provide for residential development where sites are large. (SCC 30.21.025)
(2) The BP zoning on the site must have been approved prior to the effective date of this section.	Language to limit the applicability of this code section to existing BP sites to limit the scope of properties affected and ensure industrial lands are retained for future jobs.
(3) Where mixed use development consisting of residential and commercial or industrial uses is proposed, in addition to any other applicable requirements of the county code, the development shall also meet the following development and design standards: (a) The BP preliminary site plan requirements contained in chapter 30.31A SCC shall apply to all portions of the site where development is proposed except as modified by this section; (b) The development shall comply with the setbacks and other bulk regulations of chapter 30.23 SCC for the MR zone; (c) The provisions of SCC 30.31A.120 shall apply to any portion of the site proposed for commercial or industrial uses and shall not apply to the areas of the site proposed for residential use.	Language to establish what regulations would apply when residential and commercial or industrial uses are proposed.

(4) Where a residential development is proposed, a preliminary site plan per SCC 30.31A.210 is required. In addition to any other applicable requirements of the county code, the development shall also meet the following development and design standards: (a) The maximum residential unit yield and other bulk regulations specified for development in the MR zone per chapter 30.23 SCC;	Language to establish what regulations would apply for when only residential development is proposed.
(5) All proposed development shall meet the final site plan approval requirements pursuant to SCC 30.31A.300, including conditions of approval, and shall comply with any and all other applicable requirements of the county code.	Language to ensure that residential development in BP zones meets any and all other applicable requirements of the county code.

ANALYSIS

The following analysis provides a summary of the proposed code amendments compliance with state law, regional and countywide planning policies, and county comprehensive plan policies.

The Growth Management Act (GMA) contains planning goals, contained in Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 36.70A.020, which guide the development of local comprehensive plans and development regulations. The following planning goals apply to these proposed code changes:

GMA Goal 1 – “Urban Growth. Encourage development in urban areas where adequate public facilities and services exist or can be provided in an efficient manner”

Analysis: The proposed amendments would support the urban growth goal by permitting a variety of housing types within BP, an urban zone. This would encourage development within urban areas.

GMA Goal 4- “Housing. Plan for and accommodate housing affordable to all economic segments of the population of this state, promote a variety of residential densities and housing types, and encourage preservation of existing housing stock.”

Analysis: The proposed amendments would support the housing goal by permitting a variety of housing types (single family attached, single family detached, townhouses, cottage houses, duplexes, and multifamily residential) within BP zoning under limited circumstances.

Compliance with the Multi-County Planning Policies

The proposed amendments are consistent with the following multicounty planning policies (MPPs) from the Puget Sound Regional Council VISION 2050:

MPP-H-1 Plan for housing supply, forms, and densities to meet the region’s current and projected needs consistent with the Regional Growth Strategy and to make significant progress towards jobs/housing balance.

Analysis: The proposed changes would expand the opportunities for housing development, which is consistent with the Regional Growth Strategy.

MPP-H-2 – Provide a range of housing types and choices to meet the housing needs of all income levels and demographic groups within the region.

Analysis: The proposed amendments would support this goal by allowing a variety of housing types (single family attached, single family detached, townhouses, cottage houses, duplexes, and multifamily residential) within BP zoning under limited circumstances.

Compliance with the Countywide Planning Policies

The proposed amendments are consistent with the following countywide planning policies:

DP-42 – The County and cities should conserve designated industrial land for future industries and related jobs by:

- a. Protecting industrial land from encroachment by incompatible uses and development on adjacent land;*
- b. Discouraging non-industrial uses on industrial land unless such uses support and enhance existing industrial land uses; and*
- c. Discouraging conversion of industrial land to other land use designations unless it can be demonstrated that a specific site is not suitable for industrial uses.*

Analysis: The proposed code changes limit the expansion of residential uses within BP zoning to properties that are 25 contiguous acres or more, under single ownership or multiple parcels under unified control, and that are zoned BP prior to the adoption of these changes. This would only apply to two parcels within Snohomish County, and therefore would have a limited effect on industrial zoning throughout Snohomish County.

HO-4 – The county and cities should implement policies that allow for the development of moderate density housing to help meet future housing needs, diversity the housing stock, and provide more affordable home ownership and rental opportunities. This approach should include code updates to ensure that zoning designations and allowed densities, housing capacity, and other restrictions do not preclude development of moderate density housing.

Analysis: The proposed amendments would support this policy by allowing a variety of housing types (single family attached, single family detached, townhouses, cottage houses, duplexes, and multifamily residential), many of which are moderate density types, within BP zoning under limited circumstances.

Compliance with the Snohomish County Comprehensive Plan

The proposed amendments would be consistent with and help implement a number of policies contained within the Snohomish County Growth Management Act Comprehensive Plan (GMACP) – General Policy Plan (GPP). The following policies apply to the code amendments as proposed in this report.

Objective LU 2.C – Encourage intensification and revitalization of existing and planned commercial and industrial areas.

Analysis: The proposed code amendments would encourage the development of large BP parcels by allowing a mix of residential, commercial and industrial uses.

Policy ED 2.A.2 – Snohomish County should stress predictability but maintain enough flexibility in the Comprehensive Plan and development codes to allow for timely response to unanticipated and desirable developments.

Analysis: The proposed code amendments would provide greater flexibility for uses within the BP zone by reinstating residential uses as an allowed use. This amendment would help promote vibrant mixed use communities.

Policy HO 1.B.4 – The county shall encourage and support the development of innovative housing types that make efficient use of the county land supply such as residential units in mixed-use developments, accessory dwelling units, cottage housing, co-housing, and live/work units.

Analysis: The proposed code amendments would support this policy by allowing cottage housing to be developed in BP zoning under limited circumstances.

Environmental Review

Staff is in the process of completing a State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA) checklist for this proposed code amendment and will issue a likely Determination of Nonsignificance in late November 2021. The fourteen-day public comment period will conclude prior to the Planning Commission hearing scheduled for January 25, 2022.

Notification of State Agencies

Pursuant to RCW 36.70A.106, a notice of intent to adopt the proposed regulations and standards was transmitted to the Washington State Department of Commerce on November 24, 2021.

Staff Recommendation:

Staff recommends approval of the proposed code amendments and findings contained in this staff report.

Action Requested

The Planning Commission is requested to hold a public hearing, consider the proposed code amendments, and provide a recommendation to the County Council. The Planning Commission can recommend approval of the amendments with supporting findings of fact as proposed or modified, deny the proposal with findings, or amend the proposal with appropriate findings.

SNOHOMISH COUNTY PLANNING COMMISSION

February 2, 2022

Snohomish County Council
County Administration Building
3000 Rockefeller Avenue, M/S 609
Everett, WA 98201-4046

SUBJECT: Planning Commission recommendation on proposed code amendments to Residential in the Business Park Zone

Dear Snohomish County Council:

On behalf of the Snohomish County Planning Commission, I am forwarding our recommendation on Residential in the Business Park Zone amendments. The Planning Commission had a briefing on this topic on December 14, 2021 and conducted a public hearing on January 25, 2022.

The proposed code amendments would amend regulations related to residential uses within the Business Park (BP) Zone. The proposed amendments seek the following objectives: a) promote flexibility of uses within the BP zone; b) reinstate residential development as an allowed use in the BP zone and update the related criteria for this use; and c) promote the development of a diversity of housing types to provide missing middle housing.

There were four (4) written comments received by the Planning Commission from the public prior to the January 25 hearing.

PLANNING COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION

At the January 25, 2022, Planning Commission meeting, Commissioner Everett made a motion, seconded by Commissioner James, recommending APPROVAL of the proposed Residential in BP amendments contained in the staff report.

Vote (Motion):

8 in favor (Brown, Campbell, Everett, James, Larsen, Moore, Norcott, Pederson)

1 opposed (Sheldon)

0 abstentions

Motion passed

This recommendation was made following the close of the public hearing and after due consideration of information presented and is based on the findings and conclusions presented in the November 24, 2021, staff report, with which the Commission concurred.

During deliberations on the proposed code amendments, the Planning Commission reached a consensus that the proposal should include consideration of decreasing the acreage minimum for BP parcels to develop residential uses so that more parcels will be able to benefit from the proposed change. Commissioners agreed that further analysis would be required to determine a reasonable minimum.

ITEM TITLE:

..Title

Ordinance 22-014, relating to Growth Management; amending development regulations in Chapters 30.22 and 30.31A SCC pertaining to residential development in the Business Park zone

..body

DEPARTMENT: Planning and Development Services

ORIGINATOR: Amber Piona, Senior Planner

EXECUTIVE RECOMMENDATION: APPROVE – Ken Klein

PURPOSE: Adopt code amendments amending the development regulations related to residential uses within the Business Park (BP) zone to promote flexibility of uses within the BP zone, reinstate residential uses as an allowed use within the BP zone under limited circumstances, and promote the development of a diversity of housing types to provide missing middle housing.

BACKGROUND: The intent and function of the BP zone is to provide for business and industrial uses which are capable of being constructed, maintained, and operated in a manner uniquely designed to be compatible with adjoining residential and retail commercial. The BP zone may also, under limited circumstances, provide for residential development where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for on-site mixed uses. However, existing regulations do not allow for residential uses within the BP zone. Snohomish County is facing an affordable housing crisis and housing stock shortage. The proposed amendments are intended to provide flexibility for increasing residential development within urban areas. Snohomish County is directed by the CPPs to preserve industrial and commercial land and prevent incompatible development. The proposed amendments are limited in scope to existing parcels zoned BP which are 25 acres or greater. Limiting the proposed amendments to only include existing large parcels preserves the majority of BP parcels for industrial land uses. The Planning Commission held a hearing on this proposal on January 25, 2022, and voted to recommend to approve the proposed amendments, with a planning commission recommendation letter dated February 2, 2022.

8 RELATING TO GROWTH MANAGEMENT; AMENDING DEVELOPMENT REGULATIONS IN 9 CHAPTERS 30.22 AND 30.31A SCC PERTAINING TO RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE 10 BUSINESS PARK ZONE
11

12 WHEREAS, the Growth Management Act (GMA), chapter 36.70 RCW, requires Snohomish
13 County (the “County”) to promote a variety of housing densities and housing types (RCW 14 36.70A.020(4)), and encourage development in urban areas where adequate public facilities exist or can 15 be provided in an efficient manner (RCW 36.70A.020(1)); and 16

17 WHEREAS, the Snohomish County GMA Comprehensive Plan (GMACP) – General Policy Plan
18 (GPP) Housing Policy HO 1.B.4 directs the County to encourage and support innovative housing types; 19 and
20

21 WHEREAS, Snohomish County Code (SCC) section 30.21.025, Intent of Zones, states that the 22 Business Park (BP) zone, under limited circumstances, may also provide for residential development 23 where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for on-site mixed uses; and 24

25 WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 03-107 established SCC 30.31A.140 to provide flexibility in the code
26 by allowing more uses in the BP zone by permitting residential development on large BP zoned sites and 27 providing for compatibility of residential development with commercial and industrial uses, and other 28 surrounding land uses; and 29

30 WHEREAS, Amended Ordinance No. 16-013 removed residential development as an allowed
31 use in the BP zone when the last remaining site in the county that met the requirements of SCC
32 30.31A.140 was annexed, and to help preserve commercial areas for high-intensity development and uses;
33 and
34

35 WHEREAS, according to the Snohomish County Housing Affordability Regional Taskforce
36 (HART) 2020 Report, Snohomish County is facing a housing shortage as evidenced by the growth in 37 households exceeding the growth in housing units by 61% for the period of 2016 through 2018; and 38

39 WHEREAS, reestablishing regulations allowing for residential development on large BP zoned
40 sites that are completely within urban growth areas (UGAs) would further the County’s goals of 41 addressing the housing shortage, providing opportunities for mixed-use development, and increasing the 42 intensity and density of uses on properties already within the UGA where services are already established,
43 while maintaining consistency with the intent of the BP zone; and 44

45 WHEREAS, the Snohomish County Planning Commission held a public hearing on January 25,
46 2022, to receive public testimony concerning the code amendments contained in this ordinance, and voted

1 to recommend amendments to the County Code relating to residential uses in the BP zone as shown in the 2 recommendation letter dated February 2, 2022; and

4 WHEREAS, on _____, 2022, the Snohomish County Council (“County Council”)
5 held a public hearing after proper notice, and considered public comment and the entire record related to 6 the code amendments contained in this ordinance; and

8 WHEREAS, following the public hearing, the County Council deliberated on the code
9 amendments contained in this ordinance.

10
11 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED:

12
13 Section 1. The County Council adopts the following findings in support of this ordinance:

14
15 A. The foregoing recitals are adopted as findings as if set forth in full herein.

16
17 B. This ordinance amends Title 30 SCC in the following manner:

- 18
19 1. This ordinance amends SCC 30.22.100 (urban zone categories use matrix) to add attached single 20 family, cottage housing, duplexes, multiple family, single family and townhouse dwellings as 21 permitted uses within the BP zone with a reference note.
22
23 2. This ordinance amends SCC 30.22.130 (reference notes for use matrices) to add a reference to 24 SCC 30.31A.140.
26 3. This ordinance adds a new section SCC 30.31A.140 which reinstates residential uses as an
27 allowed use in the BP zone for properties that are currently zoned BP, are a minimum of 25 acres,
28 and under single ownership or control. It also establishes which regulations apply when 29 residential and commercial or industrial uses are proposed, and which regulations apply when 30 only residential uses are proposed.

31
32 C. In developing the proposed amendments, the County considered the GMA goals. In particular, the 33 proposed amendments are consistent with and promote:

34
35 GMA Goal 1 – “Urban Growth. Encourage development in urban areas where adequate public 36 facilities and services exist or can be provided in an efficient manner.”

37
38 The proposed code amendments support the GMA goal of urban growth by permitting a variety of 39 housing types within the BP zone, an urban zone. This would encourage development within urban 40 areas.

42 GMA Goal 4 – “Housing. Plan for and accommodate housing affordable to all economic 43 segments of the population of this state, promote a variety of residential densities and housing
44 types, and encourage preservation of existing housing stock.”

1 The proposed code amendments support the housing goal by permitting a variety of housing types,
2 including single family attached, single family detached, townhouses, cottage houses, duplexes, and
3 multifamily residential, within BP zoning subject to certain regulatory requirements.

- 5 D. The proposed amendments will better achieve, comply with, and implement goals and policies from 6 the Puget Sound Regional Council's Vision 2050 Multicounty Planning Policies (MPPs), including:

8 MPP-H-1 "Plan for housing supply, forms, and densities to meet the region's current and 9 projected needs, consistent with the Regional Growth Strategy and to make significant progress
10 towards jobs/housing balance."
11

12 The proposed amendments expand the opportunities for housing development within urban zones,
13 which is consistent with the Regional Growth Strategy.
14

15 MPP-H-2 "Provide a range of housing types and choices to meet the housing needs of all income 16 levels and demographic groups within the region."
17

18 The proposed amendments would support this goal by allowing a range of housing types, including 19 single family attached, single family detached, townhouses, cottage housing, duplexes, and
20 multifamily residential, within BP zoning subject to certain regulatory requirements.

- 22 E. The proposed amendments will better achieve, comply with, and implement the goals, objectives, and 23 policies contained in the Countywide Planning Policies, including:
24

25 HO-4 "The county and cities should implement policies that allow for the development of 26 moderate density housing to help meet future housing needs, diversify the housing stock, and 27 provide more affordable home ownership and rental opportunities. This approach should include 28 code updates to ensure that zoning designations and allowed densities, housing capacity, and 29 other restrictions do not preclude development of moderate density housing."
30

31 The proposed amendments support this housing goal by allowing a diverse range of housing types
32 and moderate density housing, including single family attached, single family detached, townhouses,
33 cottage housing, duplexes, and multifamily residential, within BP zoning subject to certain regulatory 34 requirements.
35

36 DP-42 "The County and cities should conserve industrial land for future industries and related 37 jobs by:

- 38 a. Protecting industrial land from encroachment by incompatible uses and development
39 on adjacent land;
40 b. Discouraging non-industrial uses on industrial land unless such uses support and 41 enhance existing industrial land uses; and 42 c. Discouraging conversion of industrial land to other land use designations unless it 43 can be demonstrated that a specific site is not suitable for industrial uses."
44

1 The proposed amendments help conserve industrial lands for future and existing industrial uses. SCC
2 30.21.025(1)(c)(v) indicates that the BP zone is unique among commercial and industrial zones
3 because it is intended:

5 to provide for those business/industrial uses of a professional office, wholesale and 6 manufacturing nature which are capable of being constructed, maintained, and operated
7 in a manner uniquely designed to be compatible with adjoining residential, retail
8 commercial, and other less intensive land uses, existing or planned. Strict zoning controls 9 must be applied in conjunction with private covenants and unified control of land; many 10 business/industrial uses otherwise provided for in the zoning code will not be suited to 11 the BP zone due to an inability to comply with its provisions and achieve compatibility
12 with surrounding uses. The BP zone, under limited circumstances, may also provide for 13 residential development where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for 14 on-site mixed uses and for uses on adjacent properties.

16 The proposed code amendments limit the expansion of residential uses within BP zoning to properties
17 that are 25 contiguous acres or more, under single ownership or multiple parcels under unified
18 control, and that are zoned BP prior to the adoption of these changes. This would apply to a small 19 number of parcels within Snohomish County, and therefore would have a limited effect on industrial 20 zoning throughout Snohomish County. The type of uses currently allowed within the BP zone are 21 compatible with residential uses and permitting residential uses could help the existing or proposed 22 industrial uses compatibility with the existing neighborhood and area. Further, with the ability to 23 develop BP zoned property with both residential and industrial uses, there is less incentive for 24 property owners to seek a rezone of their property to a zone that would allow residential development
25 and potentially require the removal of existing industrial uses or remove the ability of existing 26 industrial uses to be expanded or intensified in the future. This amendment allows for the most 27 efficient and profitable use of land while removing the pressure to convert the industrial land and 28 maintains support for industrial uses.

- 29
30 F. The proposed amendments will better achieve, comply with, and implement the following goals,
31 objectives, and policies contained in the County's GMACP, including the following GPP goals,
32 objectives, and policies:

33
34 HO 1.B.4 – "The county shall encourage and support the development of innovative housing
35 types that make efficient use of the county land supply such as residential units in mixed-use
36 developments, accessory dwelling units, cottage housing, co-housing, and live/work units."

37
38 The proposed code amendments would support this policy by allowing cottage housing to be 39 developed in BP zoning subject to certain regulatory requirements.

40
41 ED Policy 2.A.2 - "Snohomish County should stress predictability but maintain enough flexibility
42 in the Comprehensive Plan and development codes to allow for timely response to unanticipated
43 and desirable developments."

45 The proposed code amendments will provide greater flexibility for uses within the BP zone by 46 reinstating residential uses as an allowed use. This increased flexibility will allow for large BP

1 parcels to develop as residential or a mix of residential and business park uses, in addition to
2 standard business park uses.

4 G. Procedural requirements.

- 5
6 1. State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA), chapter 43.21C RCW, requirements with respect to this 7 non-project action have been satisfied through the completion of an environmental checklist and 8 the issuance of a determination of non-significance on November 29, 2021.
10 2. The proposal is a Type 3 legislative action pursuant to SCC 30.73.010.
11
12 3. Pursuant to RCW 36.70A.106(1), a notice of intent to adopt this ordinance was transmitted to the 13 Washington State Department of Commerce on November 29, 2021.
15 4. The public participation process used in the adoption of this ordinance complies with all
16 applicable requirements of the GMA and the SCC, including but not limited to, RCW
17 36.70A.035, RCW 36.70A.140, and chapter 30.73 SCC.
18
19 5. The Washington State Attorney General last issued an advisory memorandum, as required by 20 RCW 36.70A.370, in September of 2018 entitled "Advisory Memorandum: Avoiding 21 Unconstitutional Takings of Private Property" to help local governments avoid the 22 unconstitutional taking of private property. The process outlined in the State Attorney General's 23 2018 advisory memorandum was used by Snohomish County in objectively evaluating the 24 regulatory changes proposed by this ordinance.
25

26 H. This ordinance is consistent with the record.

- 27
28 1. The intent and function of the BP zone is to provide for business and industrial uses which are 29 capable of being constructed, maintained, and operated in a manner uniquely designed to be 30 compatible with adjoining residential and retail commercial. The BP zone may also, under limited
31 circumstances, provide for residential development where sites are large and where compatibility
32 can be assured for on-site mixed uses. However, existing regulations do not allow for residential 33 uses within the BP zone.
34
35 2. Snohomish County is facing an affordable housing crisis and housing stock shortage. The 36 proposed amendments are intended to provide flexibility for increasing residential development
37 within urban areas.
38
39 3. Snohomish County is directed by the CPPs to preserve industrial and commercial land and 40 prevent incompatible development. The proposed amendments are limited in scope to existing 41 parcels zoned BP which are 25 acres or greater. Limiting the proposed amendments to only 42 include existing large parcels preserves the majority of BP parcels for industrial land uses.
43

44 I. The proposed amendments are consistent with the PDS staff report to the Planning Commission dated 45 November 24, 2021.
46

Section 2. The County Council makes the following conclusions:

- A. The amendments proposed by this ordinance comply with the GMA.
- B. The amendments proposed by this ordinance are consistent with the GMACP.
- C. The County has complied with all SEPA requirements in respect to this non-project action.
- D. The public participation process used in the adoption of this ordinance complies with all applicable requirements of the GMA and title 30 SCC.
- E. The amendments proposed by this ordinance do not result in an unconstitutional taking of private property for a public purpose.

Section 3. The Snohomish County Council bases its findings and conclusions on the entire record of the County Council, including all testimony and exhibits. Any finding, which should be deemed a conclusion, and any conclusion which should be deemed a finding, is hereby adopted as such.

Section 4. Snohomish County Code Section 30.22.100, last amended by Amended Ordinance No. 21-018 on June 9, 2021, is amended to read:

30.22.130 Reference notes for use matrices.

(1) Airport, Stage 1 Utility.

- (a) Not for commercial use and for use of small private planes;
- (b) In the RU zone, they shall be primarily for the use of the resident property owner; and

Snohomish County Council

Committee: Planning & Community DevelopmentAnalyst: Ryan CountrymanECAF: 2022-0276Proposal: Ordinance 22-014Date: April 5, 2022Consideration

Proposed Ordinance 22-014 would allow residential development in the Business Park (BP) zone on sites with at least 25 acres under the same ownership or control.

Background

Per SCC 30.21.025, the intent of BP zoning is for business/industrial uses [...] capable of being constructed, maintained, and operated in a manner uniquely designed to be compatible with adjoining residential, retail commercial, or other less intensive land uses, existing or planned [...] The BP zone, under limited circumstances, may also provide for residential development where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for on-site mixed uses and for uses on adjacent properties [bolding added.]

Although mainly a commercial and industrial zone, residential development can take place in BP zoning in certain circumstances. Historically, this has happened in one of two ways. First, development of housing in BP has long been possible as an incidental use associated with a primary commercial use. The Providence medical clinic/Arbor Place retirement center at 12800 19th Ave SE is an example of this. Now in Everett, approval and construction of this project was under county jurisdiction and BP zoning. The permit allowed senior apartments and nursing home services next to a medical clinic that served as the primary commercial use.<sup>1</sup> Developing housing in BP zoning in this manner as an incidental use associated with a primary commercial or industrial use in this manner continues to be possible.

The second way to develop in BP zoning was on large sites under contiguous ownership. Former SCC 30.31A.140 allowed residential development on sites with at least 100 acres of BP zoning. This method was how permitting took place for the Crosswater housing development on a former Agilent/Hewlett Packard business park.<sup>2</sup> Following annexation by Lake Stevens of Crosswater, no remaining unincorporated BP sites met the criteria for former SCC 30.31A.140. Repeal of that section took place in 2017.

Analysis

Proposed Ordinance 22-014 would establish a new SCC 30.34A.140, allowing residential development in BP zoning as a primary use or as part of mixed-use development. This new section would set a threshold of at least 25 acres under common control before residential development could be a primary use. Only two locations meet the proposed 25-acre criteria, although assembly of other sites could reach 25 acres.

The first site is part of a larger property known as Cathcart West that Snohomish County sold to a private developer in 2021. This includes approximately 44 acres of BP zoning. The entire property is currently undeveloped, and the BP zoning is located without the arterial frontage or visibility usually necessary to attract typical commercial or industrial uses found in BP. The rest of the Cathcart West property has mostly residential zoning. There is some Neighborhood Business zoning where frontage and arterial access exists.

The second site is a 56-acre parcel controlled by the Northpointe Corporate Center Owners Association. This property contains a large wetland, roads, and utilities for a surrounding business park and has limited remaining development potential.

Currently, there are no other sites with 25-acres of BP zoning under common control. Most BP-zones areas are already fully developed and unlikely to experience assembly and redevelopment for housing. However, there may be potential to assemble 25-acres of underdeveloped BP land east of Beverly Park Road in the vicinity of Center Road. This area developed at rural residential densities starting in the 1930s. Snohomish County rezoned this area to BP in the 1983. Since that time, the west part of this BP-zoned area has developed with warehouse and office uses. In the east part, the presence of streams and fragmented wetlands has slowed development. Protections for these critical areas have increased since 1983. Lack of development in the east suggests that potential for larger warehouses no longer exists in the east part of this BP-zoning. Ordinance 22-014 would allow for assembly of parcels into 25-acres and then new residential development on the developable areas.

- Promote the development of diverse housing types to provide missing middle housing

Background

- In 2003 Ordinance 03-107 was passed which allowed residential development on large BP zoned sites. These regulations were found in SCC 30.31A.140.
- This section was repealed in 2017 when no sites in the county met the requirements.

Background (cont.)

- SCC 30.21.025 Intent of zones still states:

“the BP zone, under limited circumstances, may also provide for residential development where sites are large and where compatibility can be assured for on-site mixed uses and for uses on adjacent properties.”
- In 2021 a large site zoned BP was sold by the County and is in private ownership.

Housing

- Snohomish County is facing significant housing demand.
- Per the Housing Affordability Regional Taskforce report, between 2016 and 2018, the number of new housing units constructed was 61% less than the increase in the number of new households in the county.

Proposed SCC 30.31A.140

BP zone performance standards for residential development

- Allows residential development in the BP zone for sites that are 25 or more contiguous acres under same ownership or control.
- The BP zoning must have been approved prior to the effective date of the section.
- Clarifies which standards apply when a mix of residential and commercial/industrial uses are proposed, and which standards apply when only residential is proposed.
