a. Changes in Premier Support Services Microsoft reserves the right to change the products supported under a Services Description during the term of the Services Description. Microsoft may discontinue support for a product, provided that Customer will be given six (6) months notice of that discontinuance. As an exception to the foregoing, should support for a product be discontinued by Microsoft because it has been sold to another company, Microsoft will provide written notice of the sale to Customer and, at Microsoft's option and in its sole discretion, either arrange for the acquiring company to begin providing support for that product immediately upon the date of notice, or provide continued support for that product for ninety (90) days from the date of notice. Microsoft may add support for new products during the term of a Services Description pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
