- 2.2 Payroll Deduction - The Employer shall make payroll deductions for Union dues and initiation fees, and/or agency fees as certified by the Union from the wages of all employees covered by this Agreement who execute a properly written payroll deduction authorization to the Employer and the Union demonstrating the employee has affirmatively consented to the deduction of such dues/fees. Such payroll deductions will be remitted to the Union on a monthly basis. The Employer will stop deducting such dues/fees from employees who revoke consent for payroll deduction, in writing, to the Employer and the Union.
- 2.3 Union Notification - The employer shall continue its practice of forwarding to the union a copy of the new employee appointment letter on or about the time such letter is sent to the new employee. Employees have the option to attend or not attend the orientation.

ARTICLE III NON-DISCRIMINATION

3.1 No employee shall be discriminated against for upholding Union principles or serving on a committee. The Employer and the Union shall not unlawfully discriminate against any individual with respect to hiring, compensation, terms or conditions of employment because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, or marital status, or the presence of any physical, mental, or sensory handicap, or age, unless the absence of such physical, mental or sensory handicap, or age, is a bona fide occupational qualification; nor shall they limit, segregate or classify employees in any way to deprive any individual employee of his/her employment opportunities, except as such may be a bona fide occupational qualification.

- They notify the Employer at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the timeoff; unless otherwise waived by the Employer. If a Step 1 meeting is denied based on the forty-eight (48) hours’ notice the timelines shall be automatically extended by two working days to allow for a meeting to occur; and
- The Employer is able to properly staff the employee’s job duties during the time-off; and

5.1.3 Subject to approval by the Employer, requests for flexible work assignments, including hours and location may be allowed. Denial of a request shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

5.1.4 The regular schedule shall provide that the employee's days off shall be consecutive. Employees will normally be scheduled for a forty (40) hour week; however, the supervisory duties of the employees may require that they work a different schedule and/or additional hours.

5.2 Meal Breaks - Employees assigned to a shift exclusive of their meal period may leave the premises during the meal period.

5.2.1 Employees assigned to a shift inclusive of the meal period shall remain on the premises and be on call during their meal period.

5.3 Rest Breaks - All employees shall receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest breaks during their assigned work shift.

5.4 If exempt employees are scheduled to work in excess of a regular schedule, they can request administrative leave.

ARTICLE VI PROBATION, SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL

6.1 Probation Period - New employees shall be covered under the provisions of this Agreement but are subject to a probation period of six (6) calendar months of active employment. During the probation period, the Employer may discharge or discipline the employee at the Employer's discretion. However, the Employer cannot discharge or discipline the employee in order to evade this Agreement or due to the employee's lawful Union activity. If an employee attends a basic training academy, any time spent at the academy shall not be included in the six (6) month probation period. If a new employee transfers to a different classification during the probation period, the probation period shall be extended until the employee has worked six (6) months in the same classification.

6.1.1 Trial Service Period - If a regular employee transfers to a different classification, the employee is subject to a six (6) months trial service period. During this period, the employee must demonstrate his/her ability and capacity to perform the duties of the classification. If for any reason an employee is not able to satisfactorily perform the duties of the classification, the employee shall return to his/her previous classification and be credited with all seniority accrued in the subsequent position. If the position is not vacant, and the employee had completed a probationary period in the previously held classification, the employee may displace (bump), by seniority in classification, a less senior employee in the classification. If the employee is not able to displace, by seniority in classification a less senior employee, the Employer shall attempt to place the employee in another position in the Corrections Department for which he/she is able to demonstrate they meet all qualifications required for hire in that position. In such cases, the employee shall be credited with all seniority accrued in their present and previous position.

6.1.2 Anniversary Date (County) - If a new employee is retained after the probation period, the employee's date of hire shall be his/her anniversary date for purposes of "continuous service credit". This date shall determine seniority for the following purposes;

Vacation Accrual
Sick leave payoff at termination of employment

6.1.2.1 The employee shall keep this date during all paid or unpaid leaves authorized by the Employer.

6.2 Seniority in Classification - An employee's continuous length of service in a classification governs his/her seniority for the following purposes:

- Shift bidding
- Vacation scheduling
- Layoff
- Recall from layoff
- Promotion

6.2.1 The employee's seniority in classification shall be the date of an employee's appointment to that classification. The employee shall keep this date during all paid or unpaid disability leaves authorized by the Employer. This date shall also be adjusted during unpaid leaves as set forth within Section A.3 (step increases). An employee who transfers to a non-represented classification in the Corrections Department and later returns to a vacant position in a previously held represented classification, shall be credited only with seniority accrued in the previously held classification. Termination of employment with the Corrections Department shall result in the loss of all seniority.

6.2.2 The Employer may place an employee in a vacant position for which he/she is able to demonstrate that they meet all qualifications required for hire in that position as an accommodation for injury, illness, or layoff. In such cases, the employee shall be credited with all seniority accrued in their present and previous position within the bargaining unit. Termination of employment with the Corrections Department shall result in the loss of all seniority.

6.3 Layoff and Recall - The Employer may lay off employees when it becomes necessary due to shortage of work or funds, the elimination of a position because of organizational changes or other legitimate reasons. However, the Employer shall not layoff a regular or probationary employee when there is a temporary employee working in a classification for which the regular or probationary employee is eligible and available.

6.3.1 Layoff of probationary or regular employees shall be made in inverse order of seniority in the classification involved. A regular or probationary employee who was employed prior to his/her present position in another classification with no break in service between the previous and present positions shall upon his/her request bump by classification seniority in lieu of layoff to a classification within the bargaining unit in which the employee previously served. In such cases the employee shall be credited with all seniority accrued in the position to which the employee returns and all subsequent positions. Employees may elect to bump back to the last previously held position and only bump back further if unable to bump into the previously held classification. No such transfer shall result in the layoff or transfer in lieu of layoff of a regular employee with greater seniority in the relevant classification.

- 6.3.2 The names of regular or probationary employees laid off or transferred in lieu of layoff shall be placed in order of seniority on a reemployment list for the classification from which the layoff took place. The period of eligibility for an employee's reemployment from the reemployment list shall be two (2) years from his/her date of layoff. In the case of recall, those employees with the longest length of continuous service in the classification shall be recalled first.
- 6.3.3 An employee on layoff shall keep both the Employer (Human Resources Department) and the Union informed of the address and phone number where the employee can be contacted. When the Employer is unable to contact an employee who is on layoff for recall, the Union shall be notified. If either the Union or the Employer is unable to contact the employee within ten (10) working days from the time the Union is notified, the Employer's obligation to recall the employee shall cease.
- 6.3.4 In the event that an employee is laid off or bumped out of the bargaining unit through a reduction in force pursuant to Section 6.3, the employee shall be referred to the County's Outplacement Services for the purposes of being placed in a vacant position for which the employee meets the minimum qualifications. If the employee is not able to be placed in a position, they will be placed on the countywide Layoff Register. This shall not preclude the employee from being recalled in accordance with the provisions of this collective bargaining agreement.
