I don't think it's worth our time to process and review. I'd say save to the file whatever they send, and call it done.

You're right. Do you still want to approve it each year?

Have a great day.

I found the insurance section. It doesn't have an AI requirement or any minimum limits. If you find a section of the contract with more requirements, let me know.

Based on what I see in the contract, the insurance is approved
