

APPROVED

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO ORDINANCE NO. 24-075 AUTHORIZING AN INCREASE IN GENERAL TAX REVENUES FOR PROPERTY TAXES COLLECTED IN 2025 AND 2026

Proposed by: Chair Mead

Brief Title: Reduce amount of banked capacity usage

1. Amend as follows:

Page 1, Line 29, remove

“$4,152,796 for the 2025 general levy, which is a percentage increase of 4.0446 (four and four hundred forty-six thousandths) percent from the previous year and $4,500,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of four (4) percent from the previous year”,

and replace with

“$2,053,501 for the 2025 general levy, which is a percentage increase of two (2) percent from the previous year and $2,250,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of two (2) percent from the previous year”.

ACTION: Mead-Dunn - failed two to three with Nehring, Low & Peterson voting against.

Low made a motion to reconsider, Dunn seconded the motion and it carried unanimously.

Mead-Dunn approved three to two

Final Council Disposition: with Low and Nehring voting against Date: 11/25/24

FAILED

AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO ORDINANCE NO. 24-075 AUTHORIZING AN INCREASE IN GENERAL TAX REVENUES FOR PROPERTY TAXES COLLECTED IN 2025 AND 2026

Proposed by: Vice-Chair Nehring

Brief Title: Reduce amount of banked capacity usage

1. Amend as follows:

Page 1, Line 29, remove

“$4,152,796 for the 2025 general levy, which is a percentage increase of 4.0446 (four and four hundred forty-six thousandths) percent from the previous year and $4,500,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of four (4) percent from the previous year”,

and replace with

“$0.00 for the 2025 general levy, which is a percentage increase of zero (0) percent from the previous year and $0.00 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of zero (0) percent from the previous year”.

Council Disposition: Nehring-Low failed two to three with Mead, Dunn, Peterson voting against Date: 11/25/24

FAILED

AMENDMENT NO. 3 TO ORDINANCE NO. 24-075

AUTHORIZING AN INCREASE IN GENERAL TAX REVENUES FOR PROPERTY TAXES COLLECTED IN 2025 AND 2026

Proposed by: Councilmember Peterson

Brief Title: Reduce amount of banked capacity usage

1. Amend as follows:

Page 1, Line 31, remove

“$4,500,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of four (4) percent from the previous year”,

and replace with

“$2,250,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of two (2) percent from the previous year”.

Council Disposition: Peterson-Dunn. Low made a motion to amend the amendment to change the percentage from 2% to 0% [as follows “$2,250,000 for the 2026 general levy, which is a percentage increase of ~~two (2)~~ zero (0) percent from the previous year”]
Chair Mead seconded the motion and it failed one to four with Councilmembers Mead, Nehring, Dunn, and Peterson voting no. Question was called for on the main motion and it failed two to three with Councilmembers Mead, Nehring, and Low voting against.

Date: 11/25/24

AMENDMENT NO. 3 TO ORDINANCE NO. 24-075
AUTHORIZING AN INCREASE IN GENERAL TAX REVENUES FOR PROPERTY TAXES COLLECTED
IN 2025 AND 2026