Subject: Supplemental Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) For Equity Analysis

Scope: Motion 24-066 approves a Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) that funds the development of an equity and poverty framework to support increased access to services for historically marginalized communities. The creation of this framework was requested by the Snohomish County Community Services Advisory Council which provides input on the CSBG program and creates innovative responses/partnerships to address the causes of poverty.

The grant scope includes creating effective procedures for communities of color and rural residents to participate in agency activities, identifying the impact of institutionalized racism within agency services, increasing program accessibility, and maintaining agency presence in communities.

Duration: July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2025

Fiscal Impact: Current Year Multi-Year N/A
