Professional experience relevant to Board/Commission

As a museum professional I have been plugged into the historic community for nearly a decade. My most recent experience is serving as the Curator and Executive Director of the Southwest Seattle Historical Society. Currently, I am the ED for the Edmonds South Snohomish County Historical Society.

Community involvement

At the community level outside of my work I am also getting involved in the SnoCAN network thinking about arts and cultural institutions in the area.

Do you serve on any other Snohomish County Board or Commissions?*

I do not!

Reasons for serving/other comments

I'm excited to be able to put my expertise to good use in the county that I live and work in, in a broader county-wide context!
