Background: The Snohomish County Council established the Children’s Commission (commission) by Ordinance 85-060 in July 1985 under SCC 2.410.010. The commission, consisting of twenty-five members, advises the County Executive and Department of Human Services on issues of health, safety, and social services for infants, young children, and youth in Snohomish County.

The membership’s composition pursuant to SCC 2.410.030 is as follows:

- 2 members under the age of 18 years old;
- 10 at-large members; and
- 3 members from each of the five districts.

Members shall represent one or more of the following areas: health and human services, education, business and labor, law and justice, concerned citizens, Washington department of social and health services, US department of health and human services, youth, elected officials, and minorities. The County Council may name an ex officio member to the commission.

Terms for people under the age of 18 are one year and for people 18 and over are four years. People may serve up to three consecutive terms. After serving three consecutive terms, a person may serve additional terms after two years’ absence from the commission.

Requested Action: Move to GLS January 22nd for consideration.
