Professional experience relevant to Board/Commission

I serve as President of the Lynnwood-Alderwood Manor Heritage Assoc and Chair the City of Lynnwood's history & Heritage Board. I have co-authored the book "Images of Rail, Seattle - Everett Interurban Railway." I write and edit the "Alderwood Clippings" newsletter for the Lynnwood-Alderwood Manor-Heritage Assoc where I have also created many historical exhibits during the past 15 years. I have worked on many historical projects in the city of Lynnwood such as the utility box wraps throughout the city and History & Heritage Days at Heritage Park. I am an Associate Board member of Snohomish County Camp Fire where I have been a volunteer for over 40 years including as serving as the Board President.

Do you serve on any other Snohomish County Board or Commissions?*

None

Reasons for serving/other comments

As a lifetime Snohomish County resident I would like to serve using my historic knowledge of the county. My mother's family lived in Marysville starting in the 1880s and my father's family in Alderwood Manor in 1928. I have heard and lived many historical moments in my life living here that I know would bring value to the Sno Co. Historical Commission.

*2.03.060SCC - Candidates for appointment to county boards or commission must meet the following requirements:

- (1) Possess qualifications for the appointment sought, as shown by the candidate's written documentation and any hearing testimony;
- (2) If a reappointment, demonstrate the continuing benefits of retaining the board member as discussed in the executive's recommendation and a satisfactory attendance record, as determined by adopted criteria of the particular board;
- (3) Reside or work in Snohomish County, or show evidence of special interest in Snohomish County, PROVIDED That a candidate may not be a County employee;
- (4) Membership is limited to one position at a time on a board or commission, PROVIDED That a member of a board may simultaneously serve on one ad hoc or advisory committee. (Ord. 82-037 § 1, adopted June 9, 1982).
