

Snohomish County Council

Committee: COW
ECAF: 2021-0344
Motion: 21-205

Analyst: Nicole Gorle

Date: June 3, 2021

Consideration:

Motion 21-205 would confirm the appointment of Demi Chatters to the Snohomish County Human Rights Commission.

Background:

The Snohomish County Human Rights Commission was established in 2010 through SCC 2.460 and serves in an advisory capacity to the County on matters pertaining to human rights. The Commission is comprised of nine members, one from each council district, one representing the law enforcement community, one representing the Executive, and two at large positions. Currently there are three vacancies on the Commission:

1. Council District 2 Member
2. Law Enforcement Member
3. At-Large Position 2

The Motion before you today would confirm the appointment of Demi Chatters as the member representing Council District 2, with the term expiring July 1, 2022.
