

---

Office of the Snohomish
County Public
Advocate

01 Introduction

- The Office of the Public Advocate is an impartial, independent office that exists to provide the citizens of Snohomish County access to accountability and transparency of their County government.
- Independent from both the Executive branch and the legislative branch of County government giving the office the functional and political freedom to serve the citizens in a truly impartial manner.
- The Office of the Public Advocate reviews complaints and concerns about administrative acts of county departments
  - attempts to resolve those complaints,
  - or determine possible alternatives to achieve resolution.

04 2022 Overview

Inquiries per Year

Inquiries per District

Inquiries per Department

*91 general inquiries
 *165 non-jurisdictional inquiries

05 Contact the Office of the Public Advocate

PublicAdvocate@snoco.org

425-388-3365