

SNOHOMISH COUNTY COUNCIL
Snohomish County, Washington

RESOLUTION NO. 23-003

Recognizing January 13, 2023, As Korean American Day
In Snohomish County

WHEREAS, January 13th is nationally recognized as a day to celebrate the contributions of Korean Americans to our society; and

WHEREAS, Snohomish County has the highest concentration of ethnic Koreans including new immigrants, first and second generation and beyond. The Korean American community has been characterized by an unparalleled work ethic, a strong value for education and an entrepreneurial spirit; and

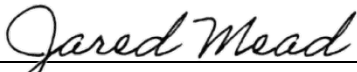

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we celebrate and honor the Korean American community who are an integral part of our community who have contributed to our rich cultural diversity, economic strength and proud heritage; and

WHEREAS, Snohomish County is committed to learning from and working with our Korean American community to remove impediments to success through increasing social inclusion, reducing poverty, ensuring language and healthcare access, and supporting meaningful civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, Snohomish County welcomes and supports Korean Americans as vital members of our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Snohomish County Council recognizes January 13, 2023, as a day to honor and celebrate the many contributions made by Korean Americans throughout our vibrant community and encourages businesses, organizations, public institutions and community members to recognize Korean American Day and take time to learn about Korean American history in our county.

APPROVED this 11th day of January 2023.
