Funding was included in the 2025-2026 budget for this contract. Costs are increasing under the contract, and the department will be requesting additional funds to put towards this contract in 2027 to cover the increase (costs are increasing from an rough annual average of $60k from the prior contract to $90k in the third year of this contract)

Authority Granted: Authorize the Executive to execute the agreement.

Background: The County originally entered into a Sole Source agreement with LEXIPOL, LLC on April 7, 2014 for a period of five years by Motion 14-118. The most agreement was approved in 2019 through Motion 19-177 for a period of five years.

In order to continue leveraging LEXIPOL's services in continued support of the Policy and Procedure Manuals for the Sheriff's Law Enforcement and Corrections Bureaus, the County wishes to continue the agreement with LEXIPOL, LLC through another Sole Source agreement, SS-24-001JM. LEXIPOL provides a comprehensive system and computer program that assists the Sheriff's office in maintaining its policies, reducing liability, and ensuring the inclusion of law enforcement best practices.

Requested Action: For Council to consider taking action.
