Subject: Law Enforcement Services – Community Transit

Scope: Approve the renewal of an Interlocal Agreement with Community Transit (CT) under which the County will provide Law Enforcement Services. Under the ILA, the County will provide transit safety and protection services as stipulated in Exhibit A throughout the CT service area defined in Exhibit B. The County is responsible for providing their own personnel and equipment as stipulated in the contract and CT will compensate the County for their services at a rate set to achieve cost recovery for services provided by the County.

Duration: January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2026

Fiscal Impact: Current Year Future-Year N/A

Revenue	Current Year	2025	2026	2027	2028	Total
Fund 165	$4,207,801	$4,409,117	$4,607,805	$0	$0	$13,224,723
Total's	$4,207,801	$4,409,117	$4,607,805	$0	$0	$13,224,723

Authority Granted: Authorizes the Executive to execute the contract.

Background: Snohomish County has provided law enforcement services to various jurisdictions for over 30 years. The majority of the County’s contracts for law enforcement services provided to cities, towns, and other entities are up for renewal this year. The contract before you is with Community Transit, who has contracted with the County since 2003 for these services.

Requested Action: For Council to consider taking action.
