Authority Granted: Authorizes the Executive to execute the agreement.

Background: In 1998 the Snohomish County Jail brought pharmaceutical services in-house for inmates in the County Jail. The first contract for this services was approved in December 1998, through Motion 98-424, with David Rose (also referred to as Summit Consulting). Since then, the provider for this service has changed twice (see below). The most recent contract, approved through Motion 13-447, is with Diamond Drugs, Inc.

The contract before you is a result of RFP 24-001BC and would approve a new contract with Diamond Drugs, Inc.

1998 through January 2006	Summit Consulting
March 2006 through March 2013	Bridgeport Pharmacy Services
June 2013 through Present	Dimond Drug, Inc.

Requested Action: Move to GLS June 26th for consideration.
