

MEMORANDUM

DATE: May 7, 2021

TO: Stephanie Wright, Chair of the Snohomish County Council

FROM: Dave Somers, Snohomish County Executive

RE: Appointment to the Snohomish County Human Rights Commission

I am pleased to recommend the appointment of Demi Chatters to the Snohomish County Human Rights Commission (SCHRC).

The Snohomish County Human Rights Commission serves as an advisory body to the County Executive, County Council, Office of Human Rights and other county officers and agencies in matters concerning Human Rights. The commission consists of nine members appointed by the County Executive and confirmed by the County Council. Members of the commission shall serve without compensation.

Demi Chatters resides in Snohomish County. Demi has served as a Seattle Suns Board Member and Community Outreach Volunteer (non-profit, youth sports organization), Students of Color Career Conference Volunteer (EVCC Event), and is an ongoing advocate for policies and practices which uphold students' human rights and foster a positive educational environment within her community public schools. Demi has held many volunteer roles in public schools including: Room Parent; Art Docent; Celebration/Festival volunteer; Field Trip Chaperone, Elementary school math helper, Senior Project Interview Prep volunteer; provider of team snacks for sports events.

This nomination has been discussed with Snohomish County Council Representative of District 2, Megan Dunn.

Pursuant to SCC 2.03.030, I hereby urge the Council's confirmation of Demi Chatters to be appointed to the Snohomish County Human Rights Commission to a vacated term ending on June 30, 2022.

Thank you for your consideration.
