Subject: Action Needed // Ordinance Set to Lapse

Morning Chair,

We have an ordinance scheduled for a public hearing on Feb 2 but because it was an ordinance from last year it will lapse on February 1st if not reintroduced. More info is below in Debbie's email.

Can I get your written approval to use your signature to sign it in again?

Let me know if you have any questions.

Nicole

Subject: 2021 Lapsed and No Action Report - CSR Items

Hi Nicole,

I am finalizing the 2021 Lapse and No Action Reports. I only have one item for CSR this year. The following ordinance will need to be re-introduced by February 1st or it will lapse and be finalized. I don't have any motions for CSR. Please let me know if you have other items on your list that I might be missing.

Please respond no later than Thursday noon, January 27th. Let me know if you have any questions. Thank you, Debbie.

1. Ordinance 21-103/ 2021-1057 Approving and authorizing the Snohomish County Executive to sign addendum to interlocal agreement for the watershed basins within WRIA 8
 - a. This was introduced by Vice-Chair Dunn on December 13, 2021
 - b. This ordinance is scheduled for public hearing on February 2, 2022, and needs to be re-introduced by February 1st.
 - c. Please provide me with Chair Dunn's or another councilmember's written authorization via e-mail and I will affix their electronic signature to the existing introduction slip.

2.48.175 Lapse and reintroduction of ordinances.

A proposed ordinance that is not passed by the council by the end of the calendar year in which it is introduced lapses if not reintroduced, passed, or defeated by February 1 of the following year. A proposed ordinance is reintroduced upon filing with the clerk of the council with the signature of at least one council member on a reintroduction form approved by the clerk. A proposed ordinance that is reintroduced retains the number originally assigned by the clerk. (Last updated May 17, 2011)
