Background:

The 2023 Adopted Budget, approved by Ordinance 22-059, included $750,000 of REET II funds, collected pursuant to chapter 82.46 RCW, to be split equally between the five council districts for Council/City Partnership Projects.

In 2023, Council identified various projects for inclusion in the Council/City Partnership Projects. One of the identified projects is the City of Lake Stevens Frontier Heights Park Project which is for Phase 2 was included in Ordinance 23-110. This will include a multi-sport athletic field for soccer and baseball, exercise equipment and pickle ball courts.

Snohomish County has agreed to provide forty-five thousand ($45,000) of REET II funds in support of the Project. The original ILA is set to expire 12/31/2025, and the City has asked for more time due to coordination of utilities and design consultant delays. Parks and Recreation has reviewed their request and agreed to extend the agreement through 12/31/2026.
