PROPOSED ORDINANCE NO. 22-044

RELATING TO ESSHB 1799 AND AMENDING SCC 3.04.177

WHEREAS, in March 2022, ESSHB 1799 was signed into Washington law to increase the diversion of organic materials to productive uses and to reduce methane emissions caused by landfills; and

WHEREAS, RCW 43.19A.150 requires the County adopt a compost procurement ordinance by January 1, 2023; and

WHEREAS, the County continues to assess the use of compost products in its government-funded projects.

BE IT ORDAINED:

Section 1. Snohomish County Code Section 3.04.177, last amended by Amended Ordinance No. 12-074 on February 6, 2013, is amended to read:

3.04.177 Environmentally preferable purchasing and product utilization.

County departments shall, to the greatest extent feasible and practicable and in a manner that balances fiscal and environmental stewardship, procure and utilize environmentally preferable materials, products, and services (including construction services). Consistent with SCC 3.04.060(7), the manager shall develop and publish an environmentally preferable purchasing and product utilization policy. The policy shall include the compost procurement requirements of RCW 43.19A.150.

Council will will also consider a substitute ordinance that includes the following language:

When planning government-funded projects or soliciting and reviewing bids for such projects, county departments shall consider whether compost products, as defined in RCW 43.19A.010, can be utilized in the project.

In purchasing compost products, the county shall give priority to compost products from companies that produce compost products locally, are certified by a nationally recognized organization, and produce compost products that are derived from municipal solid waste compost programs and meet quality standards comparable to standards adopted by the department of transportation or adopted by rule by the department of ecology.

At the Public Hearing, Council may also consider further alternatives/amendments to the proposed ordinance.

Where to Get Copies of the Proposed Ordinance: Copies of the full ordinance and related documentation are available upon request by calling the Snohomish County Council Office at (425) 388-3494, 1-800-562-4367 x3494, TDD 1-800-877-8339, or by e-mailing Contact.Council@snoco.org.
