I worked in local health departments (Island Co for 6 years and King Co for 12 years) as well as at the State Dept of Health for a total of 44 years. I've worked cooperatively with the Snohomish Health District for many years. I have provided training and expertise – especially to the Food Program. I am a life-long resident of Snohomish County. In retirement I am still on several CDC and FDA committees and I also recently co-authored 2 papers with CDC. I am patient, tolerant and a good listener. I am very passionate about Environmental Health and would love to provide input on public health issues in my community.
