Executive/Council Action Form (ECAF)

ITEM TITLE:

Motion 24-144, confirming the appointment of Jaime Dooley to the Community Services Advisory Council

DEPARTMENT: Human Services

ORIGINATOR: Jennifer King

EXECUTIVE RECOMMENDATION: Lacey Harper 3/25/24

PURPOSE: To recommend the appointment of Jaime Dooley to the Community Services Advisory Council.

BACKGROUND: The Community Services Advisory Council was established by the County Council in 1986 with the purpose of advising the County Executive and the County Council, through the Snohomish County Human Services Department, on all matters relating to the causes of poverty and to a reduction in the effects of poverty. The Community Service Advisory Council makes efforts to have each County Council legislative district represented through membership, with at least one-third of the members representative of low-income individuals and families, and the balance drawn from individuals in the private sector and public elected officials or their representatives. The sectors are termed Low-Income Representative, Community Representative, and Elected Official Representative. Members serve four-year terms and may not serve more than two consecutive terms. Appointments are recommended by the Executive and confirmed by the County Council.

Jaime Dooley resides in District 5.

Jaime Dooley is currently a High School educator in Snohomish County.

Jaime Dooley has interest in learning more about the needs of Snohomish County residents while sharing experience and knowledge to help others.

Jaime Dooley currently serves on the Snohomish School District Advisory Board.

Jaime Dooley is applying as a Community Representative.

Jaime Dooley is not currently a part of any other County committee or council.

Jaime Dooley is recommended for a first four year term upon appointment.
